5 THINGS TO KNOW BEFORE OCTOBER 3RD, 2015

As a result of the 2008 financial meltdown, the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) has published a new set of "game changing" rules and forms that will impact both the loan process and the closing of most real estate transactions.

HERE ARE FIVE THINGS YOU WILL NEED TO KNOW BEFORE THE NEW RULES TAKE EFFECT OCTOBER 3, 2015

1. MAKE SURE YOU CAN EXPLAIN THE NEW LOAN ESTIMATE AND THE CLOSING DISCLOSURE

The Loan Estimate – For loan applications taken on or after October 3, 2015, the creditor will now use a combined Loan Estimate form that replaces the two previous forms: the Good Faith Estimate (GFE), required under the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA), and the initial disclosure required under the Truth-in-Lending Act (TILA).

The Closing Disclosure –The HUD-1 Settlement Statement and the final TILA forms now combined into a single Closing Disclosure form. This form is to disclose terms and provisions of the loan, and the financial transaction of the closing.

2. TIMING OF A CLOSING WILL BE IMPACTED BY THE DELIVERY OF THE CLOSING

CFPB determined that borrowers should have a three day review period after receipt of the Closing Disclosure to review the form and its contents prior to signing their loan documents. Unless there is confirmation of the receipt of the form by hand delivery, the form is "deemed received" three days after the form is placed in the mail. With the combination of the "delivery time period" and the "review time period" this process is a total of seven business days from mailing to loan signing. It is important to note that if there are any significant changes to the loan this could cause a revision to the Closing Disclosure and a new waiting period.

3. ADJUSTMENTS TO THE TITLE FEE MAY BE NEEDED AND EXPLAINED

A listing of a settlement service that involves title insurance or closing actions is to be preceded by the phrase "Title-" by the new Loan Estimate and Closing Disclosure forms. This will allow the borrower to see all charges in the same area.

It was determined by the CFPB that customers would better benefit by the showing of the full loan policy premium, not discounted, on both the Loan Estimate and the Closing Disclosure.

5 THINGS TO KNOW BEFORE OCTOBER 3RD, 2015 (continued)

In situations where a borrower pays for both the owner's and lender's policies, the total actual amount paid for both policies is the same, even though the actual premium amounts are different on the form.

If custom provides the seller pay for the owner's policy and the buyer purchase the lender's policy, the policy premium for the lender's policy will be overstated and the owner's policy premium understated. This adjustment will be made on page 3 of the new Closing Disclosure form. If there is a real estate commission paid by seller, this will be located near the bottom of page 2 under Section H / Other.

4. SEVEN FEE AREAS HAVE BEEN ADDED TO THE DISCLOSURE AND LINE NUMBERS HAVE BEEN REMOVED

All fees and charges are placed on the Closing Disclosure in one of seven areas:

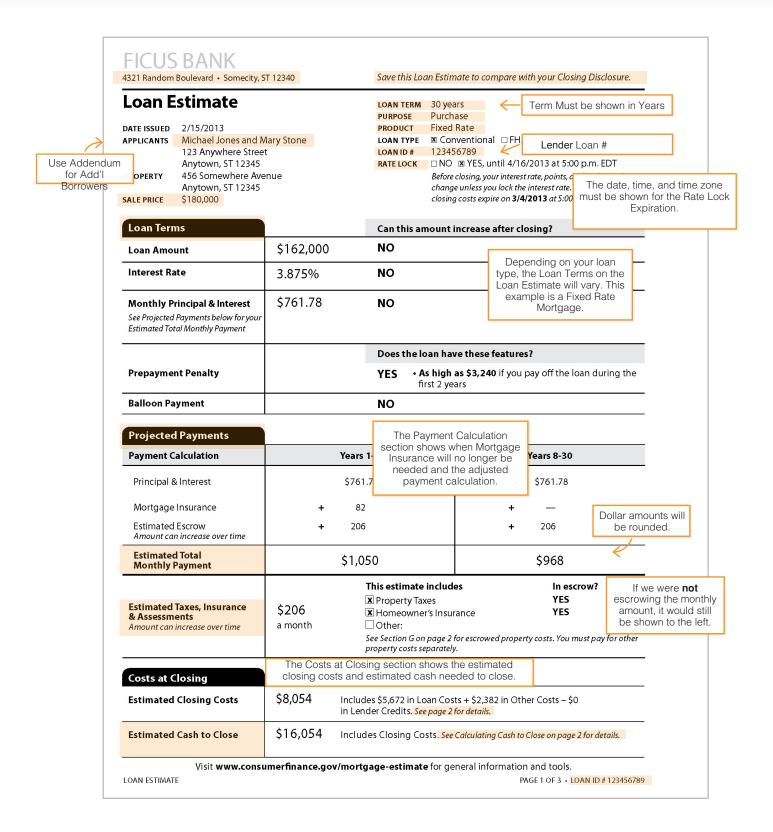

- Origination Charges
- Services Borrower Did Not Shop For
- Services Borrower Did Shop For
- Taxed and Other Government Fees
- Pre-paids
- Initial Escrow Payment at Closing
- Other

The charges within each of these groupings will be listed alphabetically. They will be separated by the charges of buyer, seller and others, as well as columns for payments before and at closing.

3. ADJUSTMENTS TO THE TITLE FEE MAY BE NEEDED AND EXPLAINED

The buyer/borrower will receive a Closing Disclosure several days before the closing, and will most likely be before the walk-through of the property. Because of this the buyer/borrower will most likely receive a new adjusted Closing Disclosure at the closing of the property that will include any adjustments due to the timing of the closing, walk-through adjustments and any other matters. In a purchase transaction, the closing agent will need to provide the Seller with their own copy and version of the Closing Disclosure. The CFPB also mandates that in financial disclosure numbers (i.e. changes in a recording fee) in any amount must be re-disclosed even if it is post-closing.

The first page of the Closing Disclosure is almost identical to first page of Loan Estimate. It describes the:

- Loan Terms
- Loan Amount
- Interest Rate
- Monthly P&I, and
- Any prepayment penalty or balloon payment.

This page also provides the projected payments over the life of the loan. Additionally, this page discloses to the borrower what amounts will be deposited into their escrow account and provides the total estimated closing costs and cash to close.

The second page is similar to the current second page of the HUD-1 Settlement Statement. It provides a breakdown of all the closing cost details and lists all loan costs and other costs paid by borrower, seller, and other parties.

UNDERSTANDING THE CLOSING DISCLOSURE

The third page displays a Calculating Cash to Close table similar to the table on the second page of the Loan Estimate. This table provides a comparison to the charges disclosed on the Loan Estimate. The rest of the page shows the summaries of the borrower and seller costs and credits, similar to the current first page of the HUD-1 Settlement Statement.

The fourth page contains disclosures about other terms of the loan, including:

- Whether the loan is assumable
- If the loan has a demand feature
- May impose a late payment fee and when it may be incurred
- If the loan has a negative amortization feature
- Whether the lender will accept partial payments
- Informs the borrower the lender will have a security in their property.

This page also includes a table describing what charges will be impounded and how much will be collected each month. Finally, the page includes adjustable payment and interest rate tables if they are applicable to the loan.
